DISCUSSION IGNITERS

- 1 What is your understanding on what it means to be “more than a conqueror”? How is that different than being just a “conqueror”?
- 2 Does being “more than a conqueror” mean that you will never be attacked? If not what does it mean?
- 3 What are the 4 questions in this passage we should ask ourselves when we are being attacked?
- 4 1st question is the “opposition question”. Read Romans 8:31. Who or what are the forces that oppose us? How does answering this question help you?
- 5 2nd question is the “provision question”. Read Romans 8:32. How does this question help you when we face lack in your life?
- 6 3rd question is the “accusation question”. Read Romans 8:33-34. How will this question help you when you are feeling condemned and question if you are good enough?
- 7 Read Romans 8:1 and Verse 34 together. What do you think Paul is trying to get through our heads?
- 8 4th question is the “love question”. Read verse 35. How will answering this question as a fact help you when our feelings are telling you something else?

CHALLENGE

- As you go home, meditate on Romans 8:38-39. Let the truth in those verses sink in.
