DISCUSSION IGNITERS

- 1 We all worship something—whether it’s God, possessions, or people. Have you ever placed anything above God? How did you refocus your worship to prioritize God in that moment?
- 2 Read Romans 12:1-2. What does “living sacrifice” mean to you in your daily life? How can this influence your worship and decisions?
- 3 Reflect on a moment, outside of church, when you felt moved to worship God out of gratitude or love. How does focusing on God’s mercy change your approach to worship?
- 4 What are some areas in your life where you might need to “get uncomfortable” or sacrifice in order to worship God more fully? How can you take action to offer something of value to God this week?
- 5 How do you currently worship God with your time, talent, and treasure? How can you start making changes today to offer God your best in each of these areas?
- 6 How do you think your everyday actions—at work, home, or in public—reflect worship to God? What are some practical ways you can live out true worship beyond the church setting?
